Milan, Italy.

Dear Sir:-

I desire to secure a copy of the two titles listed below if they are to be had at a reasonable price:-

Mazochius, A.S., Commentarii in regii Herculaneensis Musei areneas tabulas Herculeenses. 3 partes c. 11 tab.
aen. Neap. 1754-55. Folio.

Bainabei, F., Dagli scritti di A. S. Mezzocchi su la stesia di Capua e su le tarpe di Eraclea. Naples, 1874.

The second is a pamphlet I should judge and should be inexpensive. I would be willing to give 25 lire for a copy in good condition of Mazochius. If you have such a copy you may send it without waiting further. Kindly let me hear from you.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to your note of December 8th, kindly send me at once the copy of Mazochius which you offer at three dollars. Do you have a New York agent to whom I might remit, or shall I send the amount to you directly. In the latter event, in what form?

I should be glad to have a list of any further books on numismatics which you may have on hand.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.

The title page features the publisher's name 'ULRICO HOEPLI' at the top in large, bold, serif capital letters, with 'MILANO' below it. In the center is the book title 'GALLERIA DE-CRISTOFORIS' above 'CORSO V. E. N. 37.'. Below the title is a detailed coat of arms featuring two lions supporting a shield with a cross. The shield is flanked by a crown on the left and a helmet on the right. A banner at the bottom of the coat of arms reads 'CASA EDITRICE LIBRERIA INTERNAZIONALE LIBRERIA ANTICA'. The entire emblem is set against a background of decorative scrollwork and floral motifs.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter of July 29th. You may send the set of "Vincenzo De la Salte" in time at 5 lire. I will send you a draft for 200 lire - the extra 75 lire being to cover the cost of packing and postage. Do not send them in any other way. If this sum is not sufficient, advise me and I will pay the difference. But it is best to have the volumes come by post than it would be to have them sent by express or freight, which are often very much slower.

Please have such books wrapped carefully, so that they will reach us in good condition.

Dear Sirs:

Mister Cirico Negli

I have your letter of September 4th, and have received 17 of the 18 packages of which you write. The missing package is evidently lost, and the dovers and I hope that they will turn up within a short time, but I am writing to make sure that there was no mistake in your having sent them. If they were sent later than the others that would, of course, account for their non-arrival.

You may send us Val. ill of Venezia, 10 Banche di Venetia, and add to it please the cost of postage for the set of the Annuario, which we have just received. There is an error, as you write, I did not receive the amount which I intended to apply on the postage for this set.

How much more satisfactory it is to have the day come by mail you will at once see when I tell you that we are still waiting for a consignment of books which were sent us last spring from Milan, while your payment was received on October 4th. I mention this, that you may benefit by the word in connection with your service to regard to other American clients.
